ICHA Newsletter March 2018

ICHA held a NCHA Challenger Series show at Dusty G Arena in Cresco on March 17. We had a small group but a really nice show, with 29 entries in 7 classes. We send a HUGE thank you to Travis and Vanette Grover for hosting the show. They always have their arena ready and Vanette always has a great lunch prepared and we sure appreciate it all! Winter weather on Friday night might have kept some from the south traveling up but the day was sure nice in Cresco.

Dave Borness invited the youth to participate in a practice after the show and he offered critique and advice for them as they cut. That was great! A few others took Travis up on the opportunity to put in a few practice runs after the show as well.

Thank you to Denny Benson who was our timer operator. Denny is still healing from his hip replacement surgery so we were sure glad to have him there helping for the day.

Thank you to our turnback guys: Travis Grover, Judd Grover, Todd Curtin, Michael Schreck, Tom Herold and Cody Ward.

We are looking at holding another Challenger Series at Kirchner's in Clarinda on April 14. Watch the website and our Facebook page for details - it will be here before we know it.

ICHA is also looking at co-producing an NCHA Championship Show in Denison in June with the Cutting Horse Association of Nebraska. Again, watch the website and Facebook for information. It will be before the Western Nationals in Denver.

THANK YOU to our 2018 sponsors: Mid-Rivers Equine Centre, Wortham Insurance, Kirchner Cutting Horses, Dusty G Arena/T&V Grover Farms, J-Bar-R Ranch, Tom & Deb Herold, Carlos Rivera, Purina, and bar H Photography.

2018 Sponsorship opportunities with ICHA are available - find details on our website.

ICHA RON MCCARTY MEMORIAL GREENHORN STANDINGS as of March 18, 2018

The Ron McCarty Memorial Greenhorn class gives beginner cutters a chance to gain experience and confidence as they progress. Once they reach 20 cumulative points, they are awarded the McCarty Buckle and graduate out of eligibility. Once you've entered the McCarty Greenhorn class you are eligible to show in it until you point out. The McCarty Greenhorn class is a $15.00 cattle charge class only, with no entry fee/no payback. Riders earn one point each time they show (ride into the herd) in the class plus points are awarded as if NCHA payback was used.

Beginning in 2017, classes held at NCHA Championship Shows will earn double points credit.*
